PetitionCandidates Begin to Appear
In Race for the Two Council Seats

Date for the recall election for which the city council has been petitioned will be set at the special meeting of the council called for the purpose next Tuesday afternoon. The petitions asking the recall of Councilmen Henry Isaacs and Joseph Belohlavek were presented at the regular meeting on Tuesday. City Clerk Dietz also presented his certificate as to sufficiency, the petitions having more than 370 names.

When the petitions were read, Councilman Blakeslee moved that they be referred to the City Attorney for advice as to the necessary steps. W. A. Evans of the Central Avenue Association protested against delay, saying the law made it mandatory for the council to take action "forthwith." City Attorney Wygant said it was certainly the prerogative of the city attorney to prepare the necessary resolution rather than to accept what might be offered from some other source. So the motion prevailed and the council agreed to hold a special meeting next week.

So far the only candidates who have been definitely put forward to run against the incumbent councilmen are W. J. Schiltz, 67 East Highland, and Ralph W. Stewart, 233 Santa Anita Court. Others have been mentioned but no definite announcement has been made concerning them.

ASSOCIATION STATEMENT
Yesterday the following statement was issued on behalf of the Central Avenue Property Owners Association, by Mrs. Jessica Wright, secretary:

"The executive committee of the Central Avenue Property Owners Association had no candidates selected at the time of inaugurating the recall petitions. When the committee decided that no course was left to safeguard the property owners but a recall, they were confident that the necessity would bring forth capable men for the positions.

"Several names have been proposed, but two in particular have been brought to the committee with very strong endorsements, those of Mr. Ralph Stewart and Mr. Wm. J. Schiltz.

"The committee has investigated the qualifications of those

VALUE LONG AFTER
IT IS DISCONTINUED

Some advertisers expect immediate results from advertisements, regardless of the circumstances surrounding their particular case.

Facts tend to show, however, that News "wantads" are not only read each week but are remembered for a long time after their publication. For instance: The other day a pleasant voice inquired over the phone if we had the address of the colored lady who advertised in the News "some time ago." The ad was run just twice, several months before, but, as the song states, "The Memory lingered on." You can't go wrong on a News wantad.

School Fare
Action Will
Be SpeededHigh School Pupils to Be Restored on Old
BasisSupreme Court Decision is Awaited by Pasadena Authorities

Sierra Madre high school pupils will be put back on the old fare basis just as soon as official authorization is received by the Pasadena city schools. This information was given the News this week by F. Roderick Abbott of the school business office. It was based on press announcement of the recent decision of the California supreme court, of which direct official information had not been received.

Under the old regulations Sierra Madre pupils paid a fare to the Pacific Electric which put them on a par with other pupils of the district living nearer the high school. The differential between this rate and the regular commutation rate was paid by the high school district to the railway company.

The dispute arose last year when H. A. Payne, county auditor, and H. S. Upjohn, superintendent of schools, refused to approve warrants in favor of the railway company. They asserted a law passed by the 1927 legislature prevented payments for transportation of students in a high school district when the students live in another incorporated city.

The court held the law constitutional, but said in its opinion that it was not the intent of the legislature to deprive pupils of transportation because they live in an incorporated city. In commenting on the transportation situation throughout California, the court said:

"The tendency to combine and enlarge high-school districts in the interests of efficiency and economy is recognized. It seems reasonable to assume that training in our school may be best accomplished by such organization of educational facilities, and that greater economy may result by transporting students residing in sparsely settled communities to a central high school, rather than to expend large and perhaps unwarranted sums of money in constructing numerous high schools in outlying districts."

Without definite authorization from some higher authority, Mr. Abbott said, it would be useless for the Pasadena board of education to issue warrants in part payment of transportation bills. Such authority might come either from the court, the county counsel's office, or the county superintendent. While things move slowly in such matters, he said he was in hopes the necessary documents might be received in time for today's meeting of the board of education. That would permit immediate restoration of the old arrangement.

A "Trade in Puente" week has been inaugurated by the merchants of that city, in cooperation with the Puente Woman's club, with which the idea had its origin. Every member of the club signed a pledge to do her buying and the buying for members of her family in the local stores during the five days from April 15 to 20, inclusive.

Dinner MeetResult of Recent Survey to Be Placed Before Local ResidentsIs Matter of Great Importance to Every Home
Owner

The monthly dinner meeting of the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce, to be held Thursday night, April 30, will be one of the most important meetings to be held in Sierra Madre this year. At this meeting, held under the auspices of the education committee of the chamber of commerce, E. D. Burbank chairman, the findings of the experts from the Pasadena schools will be presented.

Under the direction of Superintendent John A. Saxon of Pasadena, a number of competent staff members spent several days in Sierra Madre, analyzing the local condition thoroughly. Bank deposits, population, gas, water and electric meters, number of business houses, number of commuters—in fact every fact that could have a possible bearing on present or future needs was taken into consideration. The findings of those conducting the survey have not been reduced to the final analysis as yet, so far as can be ascertained, and no one has been apprised of the probable trend of the recommendations that may be made. However, it is well to bear in mind that the survey was made by trained experts, under most expert direction, and will therefore be rather conclusive as to Sierra Madre's needs.

The dinner meeting will be open to all residents of Sierra Madre. A total of 150 tickets will be printed, and that number represents the maximum number of diners that can be easily taken care of. The tickets will be ready for distribution at the meeting of the board of directors Monday night, and may be procured from any board member.

The school question continues to be a live question in the minds of many residents of Sierra Madre and it is believed that some action looking toward an improvement in local conditions will have to be undertaken soon. Those who attend the forthcoming meeting will be in a position to give the matter intelligent consideration.

Through fortuitous circumstances Sierra Madre has been able to secure services which would, under ordinary conditions, have cost a large sum of money. This is due primarily to the characteristic energy and thoroughness with which Mr. Burbank has guided the affairs of the education committee and the community is under a heavy debt of gratitude to him.

The Park House

Behaviour, a mother's greatest problem. Ill-behaviour is one of the greatest sources of nervousness, illness, unhappiness and discontent. It not only affects the child but the entire family. But there are methods of controlling behaviour and it is necessary that it be controlled in order that the child be healthy and mentally alert.

Mrs. Brown, famous baby specialist, emphasizes this fact and urges all parents to attend the baby conference at the park club house next Thursday, April 18.

Dependability in Business Relations Makes Cooperation Easy

The best-dressed salesman who brings an order pad into the News office came in the other day. He was stepping high, wide and handsome. The office force thought it might be another boy, or some such stimulus to pride. Another look revealed something very different—it was a new suit. Of modest, clean grey, close examination revealed a fine fabric of attractive pattern.

Did that suit set off the manly proportions of its wearer? It did—and how! It was evidently cut and fitted by some one who knew how to hang fine wool cloth on the human form. And it was made right here in Sierra Madre.

Jubilee Quartet
Appears Tonight
In Social Hall

The Dixie Jubilee Quartet, who give a concert tonight in the Congregational Social Hall, are guaranteed grouch removers. They sing the old plantation songs in the inimitable fashion of their race. They bring to their work real musical ability. This is especially noteworthy in the case of Mr. Stewart, the pianist, whose work is rated very highly. Mr. Reeves is a splendid tenor soloist and adds variety with the saxophone. One of the members is also very proficient with the guitar. The quartet present a well balanced group of male voices, always a popular combination.

The concert is given under the auspices of the Women's Society of the church. There will be no admission charge but a silver offering will be taken.

Advance sale of tickets to the song recital of Donald Thayer, Tuesday night, April 30, indicate already that the Woman's Club house will be filled to capacity. Probably no event in Sierra Madre ever saw such a large proportion of the available tickets taken so long in advance.

It was announced this week that Miss Orlene Burrow, violinist, will assist in the program with two groups of numbers. With Oscar Rasbach as accompanist this assures an evening of stellar attractions.

Patrons and patronesses for the event are announced as follows: Mayor and Mrs. W. J. Lawless, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Burbank, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Isaacs, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Griebenow, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Morgridge, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Senour, Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Tarr, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Steinberger, Mr. and Mrs. R. Finnish Runners
Record On Trail

Entries are already coming in for the Orchard Camp run over the Mt. Wilson Trail to be held Sunday morning, April 21. Manager Phil Hartman expects there will be almost as many starters as there were in the adult class of the annual race last month. This second event is the result of the ambition of several runners to lower the record of 36 minutes set by Harold Williams. No trophies are offered.

Those who have already signified their intention to run include Wm. H. Kuivala, August Alquest and Carl Miller of the L. A. Finnish Athletic Club, whose ambition seems to be to sustain the supremacy established for their countryman by Paavo Nurmi. Others are Eugene Albilal, Carl Milley, R. P. Allen, W. H. Chisholm, Robt. Blackman, Henry Russell and Frank Burns.

Council Has

Night Session of Council
NecessaryLegion is Given Lease on City
Hall Basement for Long Term

Harvey H. Steinberger was awarded the contract for construction of retaining walls on the south and east sides of the new reservoir at the head of Grove Street at Tuesday's council meeting. Only two bids were received, M. J. Butigan of Los Angeles being the other bidder.

The figures on which Mr. Steinberger was awarded the contract were the same as submitted by him when the same work was advertised previously. At that time a lower bid submitted by Mr. Elliott, the reservoir contractor, was declared illegal because it was unsigned. He submitted no bid this time. Mr. Steinberger's figures were: South wall, $1100, alternate plan, $1,225; east wall, $1045, alternate plan, $925.

Most of the afternoon was occupied in the reading of bids on water pipe submitted by about a score of manufacturers and agents. So many items were included in each bid that the reading and tabulation was a slow process. It took so long that a night session was necessary to complete the business before the council. The bids were referred to City Engineer Gerlich for checking and report.

After much negotiation between the American Legion, the council and the volunteer firemen, the council agreed, on motion of Councilman Myers, to lease the basement of the city hall to the Legion. It was done with the understanding that the firemen would be accorded certain privileges in the joint use of the basement. The city will expend $300 on repairs and improvements, including a ventilating system, and the Legion and Auxiliary expect to do still more to make the place habitable and enjoyable. The Legion will pay the city a dollar a year rental for the five-year period. Option to renew the lease is given provided the quarters are not required for municipal purposes.

Under terms of the lease the quarters are made available for use of the Legion Auxiliary for the meetings and social affairs, and also for entertainments conducted for revenue purposes.

A communication from the planning commission recommended that the petition of Leigh Pruden for the zoning of a portion of East Montecito Avenue be denied on the ground that there is already enough frontage zoned for business in Sierra Madre. It was also recommended that no change be made in the name of Park Avenue, as had been suggested, and that the name of Olive Street be given that short blind street running west from Auburn Avenue opposite the end of Olive Street. No action was taken on the recommendations pending further communication by the planning commission which the council understood was expected.

Recommendation that the sycamore trees standing in Auburn Avenue north of Highland be removed as a traffic menace was presented by Street Superintendent Carpenter. Mayor Lawless agreed the trees ought to be removed in the interest of safety to human life. However, he recalled a report that there was some restriction against removal of the trees in the original conveyance of the street as a highway. Mr. Carpenter said he had been unable to find any such record. The matter was referred to the planning commission.

On motion of Councilman Belohlavek a resolution was adopted to exempt from local taxation property held in the name of the Veterans Welfare Board of California which is being purchased by war veterans for homes.

City Attorney Wygant reported the canyon swimming pool bonds would be printed and ready for delivery within a few days. He spent a good share of the evening taking affidavits from various people familiar with conditions as to the public benefit and necessity to the canyon district of the pool for which the

HOW TO TELL WHEN YOUR SUBSCRIPTION TO NEWS EXPIRES

"When will my subscription expire?" is a stock question at the News office. And this little "story" is going to let News readers into what seems to be a secret.

The figures appearing after the name and address on each paper sent out bears the answer to the above question, in every case. For instance "John Smith, 4-1-30" means that Mr. Smith has paid his subscription to Apr. 1, 1930. "Wm. Jones, 2-1-29" is paid to February 1, 1929, and will owe one year to 2-1-30. Subscription rates are based on advance payments, but this rule is not, rigidly adhered to. Unlike subscribers to the large metropolitan papers, our subscribers are our friends and acquaintances, and duns are seldom sent until they are appreciably in arrears.

Pasadena
Sewer Farm

Assistants Explain
SystemPlant Capacity Is Sufficient
To Care for Increase
In Population

Representatives from the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce journeyed to the Pasadena city farm Wednesday afternoon and, under the personal guidance of City Engineer Warren C. Earle, made an inspection of Pasadena's huge disposal plant. Mr. Earle was assisted by City Manager R. V. Orison and W. A. Allen, assistant superintendent in charge of plant operation, the number of visitors being so large that Mr. Earle divided them into three groups.

Interesting facts and figures were presented by the guides as the visitors were conducted from the intake to the point of discharge of the clear water.

At the present time the Pasadena plant has a capacity ample to care for all the territory contiguous to the city, including Flintridge, Alhambra, South Pasadena, Altadena, Sierra Madre, and other communities. A detention tank of 1,500,000-gallon capacity is being erected at the present time and when this unit is completed, it will equalize the flow and put the plant under an operating schedule that has not been possible in the past, when the flow has varied greatly at different periods of the day. Additions to the plant can be made as the need arises, and Mr. Earle can see no "saturation point" ahead.

During the fiscal year 1927-28 the plant is reported to have cared for 2,342,257,000 gallons at a gross operating cost of $171,345.25, an average of $73.16 per 1,000,000 gallons. With the fertilizer plant in full operation, with a selling price for the product of $25.25 per ton, the cost of operation has been reduced to a point where the cost of the plant per year is now approximately $65,000.00. Further savings will be made as the plant efficiency increases.

The chamber of commerce sanitation committee, of which Joe R. Eastwood is chairman, will make an exhaustive study of sewage problems during the next few weeks. Balloting on the Metropolitan Sewer District No. 7 reorganization will occur in June.

Shakespeare Festival to
Be PresentedCommunity Players Plan to Celebrate Anniversary
This MonthOutdoor Dramatic Event Will Be Donation to the Community

Plans are maturing for celebrating the birthday month of the immortal Shakespeare with a Shakespearean festival, to be staged in the city park by the Community Players. Scenes from "A Midsummer Night's Dream" will be enacted under the able direction of Mrs. J. Milton Steinberger.

No date has been set for the event, but it will probably be late in April, with good weather the determining factor for the outdoor performance.

The park, with its beautiful natural setting, is a splendid place for this gala occasion. It will be the endeavor of the players to bring into it as many members as possible, making it a real community affair. This will be the donation of the Community Players to the city. It is expected to arouse enough interest to attract the community en masse.

Arrangements for staging the production at the south side of park where the band stand has been for some years, were made on Wednesday. Four members of the council and Superintendent Carpenter, together with Mrs. Steinberger, visited the park to consider the possibilities. It was agreed to remove the band stand, keeping it at the water department warehouse on East Central so it can be brought out again at any time. This will afford ample room for large scale performances at the foot of the south lawn area, with space for a much larger audience than can be accommodated on the north lawn.

The directors of the community players held their monthly meeting Monday night. The treasurer's report showed a healthy condition. Although money is needed for various purposes, the organization is not primarily a money-making concern but stands for better drama and for fostering at all times a valuable community spirit.

The Sierra Madre Players will be represented on April 26 at Santa Ana where a tournament of one-act plays will be offered in competition. Lady Gregory's "Workhouse Ward" will be enacted by three well known actors, Mr. and Mrs. James N. Hawks and David Buchan. The presentation will be under the direction of Mrs. Steinberger. It is hoped a good delegation of local people can attend and that the players will come off victorious.

A meeting of all members of the Community Players will be held in the city hall Saturday night, April 13, to discuss plans for the Shakespeare Festival.

ident Named to Fill Vacancy

Mrs. Gilbert S. Bovard was appointed this week to fill the vacancy on the Sierra Madre school board caused by the resignation of Trustee R. S. Jensen. The appointment was made by acting county superintendent H. S. Upjohn upon the recommendation of J. O. Smith and Mrs. H. E. Allen, the other trustees. Mrs. Bovard took the oath of office on Tuesday and is now a full fledged member.

The appointment of Mrs. Bovard is expected to meet with general favor. She is well qualified for the position, having attended Cornell College, Iowa, and graduated from the University of Wisconsin. She has served as president of the Sierra Madre Woman's Club.

Purchases Of Growers On Increase

Citrus Growers Spend Large Sums Thru Cooperative Organization

"The Fruit Growers Supply Co. was organized in 1907 as a co-operative purchasing organization, owned by its citrus fruit growing members to provide their orchard and packing house supplies and during its 21 years of service it has successfully met the aggression of trade combinations, developed new sources of supplies and rendered to its members a service that could not have been obtained in any other way," states E. G. Dezell, general manager, in the annual report for the year ending December 31, 1928, recently mailed to growers. As general manager for the California Fruit Growers Exchange, Mr. Dezell is also in charge of the Sunkist supply organization.

The volume of business transacted by the company with its members in 1928 is indicated by 47,465 invoices handled, compared with 45,156 during 1927. The value of business in 1928 was $8,775,750 compared with $8,657,876 for 1927. The company has transacted a business of $131,550,866 during the last 21 years, according to the report.

As a purely cooperative purchasing organization, controlled by the citrus fruit grower members of the California Fruit Growers Exchange, the policies adopted for the conduct of the affairs of the supply company have been and always will be a matter of the utmost importance to the exchange membership. To this end the affairs of the two organizations have been administered by the same board of directors. Not only is this necessary to facilitate the handling of business matters but it assures a uniformity of policy that might not otherwise obtain.

Pageant at Hemet Will Have Stars

Story of Ramona to Be Portrayed in Out-of-Door Theatre

Leading romantic roles in the picturesque Ramona Pageant will be taken by Dorise Schukow, portraying Ramona for the sixth time, and Herbert Heyes, widely known stage star and featured National Broadcast Radio artist, according to an announcement by Edward Poorman, president-manager of the outdoor spectacle to open April 20 at Hemet.

Miss Schukow, prominent star of outdoor drama, is well known to thousands for her portrayals of the Indian heroine in five out of six previous presentations of the colorful drama, which has grown to rival the famed "Passion Play" of the Bavarian Tyrol as a community festival. Heyes, who will enact "Alessandro," Ramona's lover, for the first time, is nationally known for his appearances in stage productions opposite such stars as Nazimova, Marjorie Rambeau and others. He has co-starred with Anna Q. Nilsson on the screen and has appeared opposite Theda Bara, Constance Talmadge, Betty Blythe and others. For the last five months he has been featured by the National Broadcasting Co. over the countrywide radio network.

With such outstanding stars in leading roles, elaborate preparations are being made by the people of Hemet and San Jacinto to outshine all previous presentations this year. The fiesta players and others of the cast of 200 already have begun rehearsals under the supervision of Phil Whiting, director of the spectacle, who has succeeded to the directorial toga of the late Garnet Holme.

Orchestra Will Close Program at Perris Festival

The initial desert concert of the famous Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra of 104 musicians will be played in the natural outdoor theatre near here next Sunday afternoon, April 14. The desert symphony will climax the first annual Perris valley spring festival week, opened last Saturday by the presentation of "Mocking Bird" historical pageant.

Under the cerulean desert skies the great symphony orchestra will play a stirring program of music selected by George Schneevogt, conductor. The program contains "Finlandia" (Sibelius), "Indian Dance" (Skilton), "España" (Chabrier) and Ernest Bloch's epic rhapsody "America." The people of Perris Valley have learned the anthem which concludes Bloch's work symbolizing the destiny of America and will sing it at the close of the concert. The desert theatre lies on the outskirts of Perris, 17 miles south of Riverside on the inland state highway to San Diego. All highways leading to the concert are well marked and unlimited free parking facilities have been provided. The symphony concert will begin at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Shriners to Visit All of Southland

Annual Convention to Draw Huge Crowds of Eastern Sightseers

Thousands of Shriners will visit not only Los Angeles, but all of Southern California when they come west for the 55th annual Shrine convention June 4, 5 and 6. Advice from eastern Shrine temples indicate that while Los Angeles will be the center of activities, the delegates are anxious to extend their tour to include sight-seeing trips and vacations among the cities, towns and resorts of the Southland.

Early in June more than 100,000 Shriners, their families and friends, will arrive in Southern California and great numbers are expected to remain in this part of the country throughout the month. The Los Angeles Coliseum will be the heart of the Shrine festivities during the convention. Seven big events, each open to the public, will be staged there. They are the million-dollar motion picture electrical pageant, four performances of the Circus Maximus and two dress parades. Season tickets, reserving for all of these events, cost $5.50 and may be obtained in person or by mail at the B. H. Dyas stores in both Los Angeles and Hollywood.

Fiction Has Major Place At Library

Librarian's Report Shows it To Be Choice of Most Readers

Circulation at the Sierra Madre public library for the month of March reached a total of 4354 volumes. Adult fiction accounted for 52 per cent of this, non-fiction and juvenile works for 24 per cent each. Eighteen new borrowers enrolled during the month, according to Miss Lulu Moore, librarian.

New books added during the month are as follows: Adult Fiction: Hurst: "Procession." Kelland: "Dynasty." Delefield: "First Love." Sedgwick: "Dark Hester." Elizabeth: "Expiation." Wallace: "Twister." Van Dine: "Bishop Murder Case." Cozens: "Cock Pit." Lewis: "Dodsworth." Walpole: "Farthing Hall." Undset: "Snake Pit." Non-Fiction: Darling: "You and the Law." Whiffen: "Keeping Off the Shelf." Der Ling: "Old Buddha." Cher: "Charlotte Corday." Beck: "Story of Oriental Philosophy." Hall: "Egypt in Silhouette." Lodge: "Why I Believe in Personal Immortality." Walter: "World on a Leg." Under and by virtue of an order of sale and decree of foreclosure and sale, issued out of the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of Los Angeles, on the 8th day of April, 1929, in the above entitled action, wherein the above named plaintiff obtained judgment and decree of foreclosure and sale against Defendant, on the 4th day of April, 1929, for the sum of Fifty-one Hundred Eighty-five and 02/100 Dollars gold coin of the United States, plus interest and costs, which said judgment and decree was on the 6th day of April, 1929, entered and recorded in Judgment Book 671 at page 134 of seq. (to which judgment and decree reference is hereby made), I am commanded to sell at public auction all the following described premises, situate, being and being in the City of Pasadena, County of Los Angeles, State of California, and bounded and described as follows, to-wit:

Lot seven (7) of the Sheldon G. Smith Trust, as per map recorded in Book 5, Page 104 of Maps, in the office of the County Recorder of said County.

PUBLIC NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on Wednesday, the 8th day of May, 1929, at 12 o'clock noon of that day in front of the Court House door of the County of Los Angeles, Broadway entrance, I will, in obedience to said order of sale and decree of foreclosure and sale, sell the above described property, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy said judgment with interest, and costs and expenses of sale, to the highest and best bidder for cash, gold coin of the United States.

Dated April 8, 1929.

R. E. ALLEN, Commissioner appointed by said Superior Court.

BROOKS GIFFORD, Bldg., Pasadena, Calif., Attorney for Plaintiff.

When you paint....

be sure of LASTING BEAUTY

No PAINT LASTS forever. But fine paint does last so much longer than cheap paint that the only way to economize in painting is—use fine paint. The labor cost of painting with Fuller Pure Prepared, the White Lead Paint, is no more than the labor cost of using cheap paint. The higher cost, per gallon, of Fuller's is more than offset by longer life, greater protection and clear, true colors which last. There is no satisfactory substitute for White Lead in paint. Fuller's Pure Prepared is skillfully made of the right proportions of Pure White Lead (for body and elasticity); pure Zinc Oxide (for capacity and hardness); and the highest grade of linseed oil. The beauty and protection it gives your home is just what you pay for Fuller Pure Prepared is just what you pay for. Painter—and specify Fuller Pure Prepared Paint. Interesting News Notes from Sierra Madre Canyon

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence L. Virgin moved from their home at 2604 East Villa street, Pasadena, which they recently sold, to their new home in Fallbrook on Friday. They spent Sunday and Monday with Mrs. Virgin's mother, Mrs. Ella A. Cadmus, at Cadmus Villa.

Mrs. Harvey Slocum and a party of friends were visitors in Sierra Madre on Tuesday at the Wistaria vine. Mr. and Mrs. Slocum, former canyon residents, are located at the present time in Azusa, Mr. Slocum being superintendent of construction of the San Gabriel dam.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon S. Griswold enjoyed a trip to St. Francis dam Saturday. From there they drove to Palmdale and on to Burkhardt's ranch where they met a large party of Sierra Club members for a hike to the Devil's Punch Bowl. Encountering deep snow Mr. and Mrs. Griswold left the party and returned to their cottage on Brookside Lane for the week-end.

Rev. and Mrs. Louis Tinning and their daughter, Miss Theresa Tinning, left on Saturday after a two week's stay at Seldom Inn cottage. Rev. Mr. Tinning, pastor of the Lomita Community Church for four years, is moving to Los Angeles this week to assume his new duties as pastor of the Hollenbeck Church. He will reside at 122 North Chicago Street in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Agnes Leighton and Mrs. Laura M. Cline entertained with a luncheon on Sunday at Mrs. Cline's home, "El Contento," in honor of a group of friends met on their trip to Honolulu in November. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in reminiscences of the trip and in comparing pictures taken. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Weston, their son, John Wheeler and grandson, Allen Wheeler the Third and Fred P. Simpson of Los Angeles. Luncheon guests of Mrs. Cline on Tuesday at her home on Woodland Drive were Mrs. Janet Blake and Mrs. Brown of Beverly Hills.

Mrs. Dora King passed away Sunday night at 7 o'clock after an illness of more than a month. Death was due to asthma and heart trouble. Mrs. King, who was born in Youngs, Pa., was 65 years of age. She spent the greater part of her life in Iowa and Colorado, coming to Los Angeles county about five years ago from Greeley, Colo. Mrs. King was a resident at Mountain View Lodge on Brookside Lane for 11 months prior to her removal to 46 West Grand View Avenue, where she has resided during the past two months. She is survived by a sister, Mrs. Wm. Mead of Long Beach, a brother B. K. Siggins of Pasadena and another brother at Mt. Vernon, Iowa. The body was shipped to Mt. Vernon, Iowa, at 4:30 Tuesday for burial beside her husband and was accompanied east by Mrs. Mead. Funeral arrangements were in charge of R. R. Reynolds, manager of the C. F. Lamb Funeral Home.

Miss Agnes Wolcott, assisted by her sister, Miss Lucy Wolcott, entertained the faculty of the part-time high school of Long Beach and a few friends on Sunday at their cottage on Alta Vista and Vista Circle Drives. The guests of honor were Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Kemper who have recently married. A long table, set under an oak tree in the grounds and ornamented in the center with a huge crepe paper rose drawn by a miniature bride party, concealed a beautiful set of glassware, a gift from the faculty. A large cake containing lucky omens was cut and served to the guests by Mrs. Kemper. Flower and bird guessing games with prizes appropriate to the occasion occupied the greater portion of the afternoon. Those present, besides the hostesses and guests of honor were Mrs. Jemima Wigton and Miss Louise Wigton, mother and sister of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Quist, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Walker, Mrs. Helen D. Atkins, Mrs. Jeanette Fletcher, Misses Pearl Palmer, Marjorie Atkins, Marjorie Smith, Theresa Kurtenbaugh, Ruth Irene Corser, Ina Fletcher and Messrs. Harold Stewart and Paul A. HORRORSCOPE
A girl baby born today will be twenty years old on April 12, 1959. In all probability she will be fond of lobsters on the half shell and know at least two head waiters by the first name (if she goes to college). She will be a blonde or a brunette, and if she lives to a ripe old age she may be the first person to travel down Central Avenue when that broad artery is opened through the Hastings ranch.

Well, nobody has asked our opinion about it, either. But if "Reservations" were the mayor, the city council, city attorney, the property owners association and the county board of supervisors, we'd see to it that Baldwin Avenue was opened, straight as possible, to Long Beach, in the shortest feasible length of time. All recalls aside, Baldwin Avenue, opened to give Sierra Madre an open road to the sea, and the sea an open road to Sierra Madre, would do more to build up the town than all the Central Avenues in the county.

But remember, folks, it is a long worm that has no turning!

FAST WORKERS
"Atheism to Nip Fraud in Inception," says a news headline concerning a new appointee in the district attorney's office. Mr. Atheism has got a job on his hands to "nip" any fraud in this vicinity before the slickers make their clean-up.

This one from Tobias Larson's "Personal Column" in the Claremont Courier, under the heading "Glory of Office" may bring comfort to aching hearts in Sierra Madre, and consequently is gladly reproduced:

"Mayor Park of Pomona was a candidate for re-election. Out of 9,343 registered voters, just 871 thought enough of him to go to the voting place and endorse him for a second term. The winner in a race among four received 1858 votes. And there was nothing particular against Mr. Park. Two years ago he went in with a whoop. Monday he was down and out and they didn't care a hoot.

Most people who become candidates for office end up disappointed and disillusioned. Popularity is fickle. As mayor no one can please all. The wonder is that people will seek a small town office at all. In Claremont candidates have to be drafted. The only time there is a contest is when too many are pushed into the draft."

Sierra Madre is getting plenty of notoriety out of the Central Avenue controversy. Half facts are percolating thruout this vicinity, and a flood of misinformation is bound to be released before the controversy is settled.

Many people will read the headline, "Recall Sierra Madre Officials" and pass on to the next item with the remark: "Ah, they have a fight on in Sierra Madre!"

How much better it would be to settle such arguments by local arbitration, and give the world only the news that "Sierra Madre Will Pave Central Avenue." That would mean progress. "Sierra Madre Recalls Aldermen" means just another battle on.

Personally, "Reservations" is going to string along with the side that puts in motion first the machinery to provide Sierra Madre with better school facilities. We think school buildings and sewers are more important than getting a road through Hastings Ranch.

"A FINE SHOW"
Folks looking for a "talkie" that is better than usual, supported by a splendid prologue, can do themselves a favor by visiting "The Broadway Melody" at Grauman's Chinese. It's one of those presentations that give you plenty to think about, as well as being mightily entertaining.

Local Contractors Go to Atascadero For Big Paint Job

George Hapgood and O. W. Carlson left this morning for Atascadero with their car hitting on all seventeen cylinders. For they were going to sign up on a painting and decorating contract for a new store and hotel building. In addition to stores on the ground floor, the structure will have 50 guest rooms. It will be operated in connection with the Atascadero Inn. The decorating contract of the latter building was executed by the local men a year or so ago. Their services were so satisfactory that they were called upon by the proprietors for the new building now nearing completion. Naturally they were much gratified at the repeat order.

Fire Flames

By One of the Boys

This is practice night! Hurrah! Been a long time since. It has just been learned why some of the boys insisted on wearing dark colored glasses at the Wistaria parking grounds. I thought it was strange to have to wear colored glasses to park cars. Chief Richards said it was to keep dust out of your eyes. George Norris said it was to enable you to see more. Others said other things, but one brave lad told me it was to keep people from seeing where he was looking. I guess he was right.

Last Tuesday afternoon must have been baby day at the Wistaria Fete. As Norris had completed placing a fine touring car to the proper position, the lady of the car asked if her baby would be safe, if left in the car. Well, babies being one of George's chief hobbies, he said, "Why, certainly, madam, we look after everything." The baby seemed quite comfortable until his bottle was empty and then he (or she) began to put up a howl. George came a running, and placing the baby in the natural position that an experienced father would, he soon had the young 'un eating from his hand. But, before the mother returned, the baby became uncomfortable (for certain reasons) and George, having had plenty of experience, immediately placed the baby in a different position (for self-preservation) and got to work. To make a long story long, when the mother returned, the baby and George were having a glorious time together and the baby was very comfortable and the mother was grateful.

This was not the end of Geo.'s experience in this respect, for a little later, Frank Lovell was asked to take care of four children, and like Andy Gump yells, "Oh, Min!" Lovell calls, "Oh, George," and George appeared at the first call. When asked if he would look after the children, our noble assistant chief said: "I sure will, but for gosh sakes, leave three or four whatyoumaycall'ems here, please."

All this began to make George so popular that Lovell got somewhat "green eyed," so he kept a sharp lookout for the next baby to arrive and when he saw a pretty young woman talking baby talk to something inside her closed car, Frank came to her and asked if he could take care of the baby. "What?" said she, "a baby! I have no baby." "What is it then, a dog?" chirped Lovell. "Do you mean to call my husband a dog?" scowled the nice lady, and Frank is running yet. The last I heard of him, he was hunting his dark glasses.

Practically all the department were on the parking lot last Sunday and a big day was reported and we now feel assured of the payment of the resuscitator.

Don Hosford and Tom Schwartz are evidently practicing for radio announcing. Their clear voices could be heard about the lot all day. Steve Petzel works daily at the grounds. Lee Hibbs was seen about the place last Sunday, also. He handled his tickets in the usual manner.

It has been learned that the local American Legion Post has acquired access to the basement of the city hall and as far as can be learned, the firemen are glad of it. Although this was quite a blow to the boys of the fire department, we do not want to appear selfish and can assure the members of the American Legion that we have no serious objections. There is no reason why the American Legion and the firemen cannot work in harmony as heretofore. We hope that there will be no misunderstanding between the organizations.

At the last meeting of the directors of the chamber of commerce, it was mentioned that the people of Sierra Madre are not neighborly, and that they are hard to get acquainted with. I'm wondering if the people of this day and age aren't too busy to be neighborly. It seems that when the day's work is done, that there's "no place like home." What a "grand and glorious feeling" to come home from the daily

This is Miss Carter's first year at the university, where she is a junior. The fraternity honor is usually accorded only to seniors. She graduated from Pasadena junior college and carried on summer school work at U.C.L.A., making a splendid record in her chosen specialty, which is botany.

Council Has Long Session On Tuesday

bonds were voted. This was to file with the attorneys to whom the bond proceedings were referred as to legality.

Engineer Gierlich asked for instructions as to whether or not to add plans for a public comfort station in connection with the proposed bath house. The canyon folk had asked that this be done out of public funds instead of from the bond fund. Mr. Gierlich did not wish to proceed without definite authorization. This was granted on motion of Councilman Myers.

Water Superintendent Carpenter and Engineer Gierlich brought to attention of the council the large flow of water into the water tunnels when water was backed up behind the dam. The recent rains afforded the first real test and showed that the city's gravity water flow would be largely augmented and the dam would be a valuable conservation agency.

However, it was pointed out that to prevent great water waste it would be necessary to bulkhead at least one of the tunnels and probably both of them. The bulkheading could be done successfully only by lining the tunnels for a considerable distance with concrete. With proper control gates a large part of the water behind the dam eventually would find its way into underground storage and percolate into the lower basin from which it could be pumped. It is understood the county flood control department is willing to meet the expense of putting the tunnels into satisfactory shape because the building of the dam has imposed such different conditions in the canyon.

Charles Shippey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Shippey, had a narrow escape from losing one of his eyes last Friday. He was playing with a toy gun in company with a neighbor lad, when in some manner the gun was poked in his eye so forcibly as nearly to gouge his eye out. He was rushed to Dr. McCann at Monrovia for treatment and it was feared at first that he would lose his vision. A late examination indicates, however, that the eye will probably be restored to normal.

R.V. Seebree Glad to Get Home Again

Thinks Idaho Weathered Was Planned to Drive Him Away

That was a touching reunion which took place at Los Serranos golf links on Thursday. The occasion was the return of Ralph V. Seebree, who has been absent for a month, attending to business affairs at his old home in Caldwell, Idaho. Other golfers who enjoyed the festivities were Joe Sadler, J. N. Hawks, Frank Spencer, Ray Grant and Carl Pegler.

Heaven would have to be quite a place to hold any attractions for Mr. Seebree in comparison with California after his Idaho visit. His experiences with blizzard weather outdoors and steam-heated interiors afford ample material for descriptive oral exercises. The crowning touch was the necessity for wading in the snow while changing cars at Salt Lake City on Tuesday.

Mr. Seebree insists that he made every effort to repress all inclinations to provoke the natives with the sort of climate talk for which Southern Californians are blamed. For the most part he succeeded admirably. But he admits that he was subjected to considerable joshing over becoming a tenderfoot after long absence from his boyhood home. And at times this provocation became so acute that he had to retaliate by telling them a little about California.

Merchants Hope to Drive Jinx Away

Sierra Madre baseball fans are looking forward to a good game Sunday, when the Pasadena Red Sox come to start a three-game schedule with the locals. The locals have a fast infield line-up for the opening game. Kellogg will catch again for Sierra Madre, and our best hope is, that he will be able to take a permanent position on our diamond.

Lefty Gomez, from Los Angeles is slated to pitch for Sierra Madre Sunday. How good he is (or how bad) will be determined Sunday. He will have to go some to beat "Joe" hurrying Sunday.

Emil Smith (one of the well known Smith Brothers) pitched a real relief game Sunday, considering the circumstances.

Fans, did you ever think of Sierra Madre having a real ball park? Well, you had better think about it, if you want baseball to continue in Sierra Madre. I "ask" u, do you frankly believe that baseball games played on the Yerxa diamond have brought any people to Sierra Madre who never knew Sierra Madre was on the map? Just ask the people at the Sierra Madre Cafe. They will open your minds and turn your ears out.

Wanted: Fans who will root for their home team when the team needs encouragement. Baseball fans, not razz-horn hounds.

ENTERTAIN VISITORS IN CALIFORNIA

Mr. and Mrs. George Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer G. Mansfield, all of Hollywood and Buffalo, were dinner guests of Mrs. Minnie MacDowell Saturday. Before coming to California Mr. Mansfield was one of Buffalo's most eminent attorneys. Mrs. Mansfield organized the Euterpe Opera Club of Los Angeles and is one of its ex-presidents. Mr. Mansfield is leaving for Buffalo on April 5th. Mr. and Mrs. Austin are leaving May 15th and will motor through this year.

Miss Janice Bolen was calling on friends in Sierra Madre Friday and left Monday for Spokane, Wash., to be with the family. Lee Bolen is at the Elliott Rest Home on Duarte Road, and would be pleased to see friends.

ELECTION BOARD NAMED

At a special board meeting of the Woman's club held on Wednesday, April 10, the election board was named. The nominating committee includes Mrs. Walter Poehler, Mrs. Fred Griebenow and Mrs. Charles B. Klunk.

Delegates to the district convention to be held in Pasadena April 17, 18, 19, were announced. Mrs. John H. Robertson, Mrs. Franklin W. Swift and Mrs. Elmer A. Green. Alternates to be Mrs. W. R. Humphries, Mrs. Nestor A. Young and Mrs. E. H. Porter.

Announcement is made by the board that the closing day of the Wistaria Fete will be Sunday, April 14.—Mrs. Elmer A. Green, press chairman.

MISSIONARY MEETING AT CLAREMONT

The annual meeting of Congregational Women's Missionary Societies of Southern California will be held at Claremont April 16, 17 and 18. There will be addresses by Dr. C. K. Edmunds, Dr. Robert Freeman, Rev. Perry Schrock and many other splendid speakers. Home and foreign missionaries will be present to tell of their experiences and there will be a pageant and Pomona College Glee Club will sing. The delegates from Sierra Madre are Mrs. Hortense Hill, Mrs. Fred Staff, Mrs. J. M. Campbell, Mrs. Edward E. Bacon, Mrs. Percy Kortkamp and Mrs. W. S. Hull. Many others will go over daily. Anyone having room in his car for others please notify Mrs. Hull.

BRIDGE AND FIVE HUNDRED

St. Rita's Bridge and Five Hundred Party to be held Tuesday evening, May 7th, is the third party of the series being given in the parish. The hostesses, Mrs. Ralph Solury, Miss C. Reynolds and Mrs. Leslie Wynne, are planning to make this a most enjoyable evening for all who attend. The usual worth-while prizes will be accorded the high score in each game.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Mercer, 258 North Adams Street, have as guests their daughters-in-law, Mrs. Joseph Mercer and Mrs. Richard Mercer of Battle Creek, Michigan.

LUNCHEON AND BRIDGE

Mrs. J. S. Weber and Mrs. Ada M. Oswald entertained a group of friends for luncheon and bridge on Monday at the Weber home at 352 East Alegria street. Spring flowers in shades of orchid, pink and yellow were used throughout the rooms, and in table decorations. The guests were Mrs. G. Miller of Altadena, Mrs. Henry Isaacs, Mrs. Carl Graf, Mrs. John Woehler, Mrs. John James, Mrs. William Burns, Mrs. C. Brockway, Mrs. Ralph Solury, Mrs. W. D. Richards, Mrs. G. M. McRoberts and Miss Effie Walsh. Mrs. Burns won high score, the second prize went to Mrs. Miller, and Mrs. Graf received consolation.

ENTERTAINED AT THE WISTARIA VINE

Mrs. Ralph Solury was hostess to twenty-eight of her friends at luncheon Wednesday, a delicious repast being served at the Wistaria Fete. Following the luncheon they repaired to the home of the hostess where bridge was enjoyed. On the 4th inst. Miss Marion Solury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Solury, was hostess to a group of twenty of her young friends, luncheon being served at the famous vine, and bridge occupying the remainder of the afternoon at the Solury home. Table and home decorations were in wistaria shades.

MRS. PATTERSON TO TALK BEFORE MOTHERS' CLUB

The Mothers' Club of the Congregational Church will meet in the Ladies Parlor at the church this afternoon at 3:00. Mrs. Ethel Patterson will continue her excellent talks, Friday's topic being "Training the Child in a Spiritual Way." It is the third talk in a series of six being given before the club members by Mrs. Patterson. Anyone interested in the subject is cordially invited to attend the meeting.

ENTERTAIN FRIENDS AT DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Hoxmeier and family of Los Angeles and Mrs. A. E. Goebel and family of Alhambra were guests at the D. Krier home, at dinner, Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Schiltz and family also were guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Weinacht and daughter, Barbara, of Long Beach, were visitors at the W. J. Schiltz home Tuesday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Ellis Scantlebury of Los Angeles was calling on Sierra Madre friends this week. She is leaving Saturday for San Diego where she will spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Draman are the parents of a fine baby girl, born April 2 at the Kaspere Cohn Hospital, Los Angeles. The young lady has been named Miriam.

Mrs. Timothy Smith and daughter, Miss Madeline Smith, arrived yesterday from their home in Cleveland, Ohio, for a visit with relatives.

The girls of Mrs. Kittie Buie's class of the Congregational Church school will hold a candy sale on Saturday, beginning at 10 a. m. The good things will be offered for sale in front of the News office.

ANNUAL BIBLE CONFERENCE SOON

May 7 and 8 is the date of the Fifth Annual Bible Conference to be held in Bethany Church under the auspices of the Woman's Missionary Society. Interest is keen and widespread regarding this excellent two-day series of devotional and inspirational messages by some of the finest speakers available in this district. Included in the list of speakers is Mrs. H. Norton Johnson, Miss Natalie Romans, Mrs. C. Eustice Harrell (daughter of the late A. J. Gordon of Fremont Temple, Boston), Mrs. Gantz, Dr. A. B. Prichard, Mr. George R. Allen (founder of the Bolivian Indian Mission), Dr. John C. Page. As usual, Mrs. John Lowe will give the opening message. The complete program, with each speaker's topics, will be announced in next week's News. Watch for it; plan for the conference, and reserve May 7 and 8 to attend the conference. There will be two speakers each morning, two each afternoon and one each evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stokes of Evanston, Ill., are guests at the home of Mrs. Stokes's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Corlett, 65 East Mira Monte Avenue.

Mrs. E. B. Doolittle, 274 Mariposa, is entertaining at the Wistaria Fete today Mrs. S. J. Nolan of Seattle, Mrs. George Fullerton of Pasadena and Mrs. C. R. Pendergast of Bellflower.

Misses Mary Davis and Frances Glidden spent the latter part of last week at Balboa, enjoying an outing with the Phenix Club of Pasadena. Mrs. Ethel Davis was one of the chaperones. Tonight the Phenix Club are giving a dance at the Monrovia Elks club house.

Mayor Receives Floral Tribute Of Eastern City

Mayor Lawless of this city was greeted Saturday morning, April 16th, with a beautiful floral basket of Russell roses and lilacs, sent to him from Mayor Frank Y. Schwab, of Buffalo, N. Y., upon the occasion of the opening of the tenth National Flower Show in that city. Florists of the nation took this opportunity to practice what they preach by "Saying it with Flowers" to mayors all over the country, and thru their international organization, the Florists' Telegraph Delivery Association, flowers were wired from Buffalo to Mayor Lawless. The flowers were delivered by the Ward Nursery, local bonded member of the Florists' Telegraph Delivery Association.

This mark of good-will as displayed between two cities is a development of modern good fellowship, and the people of Sierra Madre will be pleased to learn of their share in this expression of friendliness. The card of greeting on the flowers read:

"Greetings: Upon this occasion, the opening of the Tenth National Flower Show in our city, allow me to express the good will of the people of Buffalo to the people of Sierra Madre by the 'Saying It With Flowers' by telegraph. This flower token of the civic friendliness was made possible through a world-wide organization of 4,500 bonded members of the Florists' Telegraph Delivery Association. Sincerely, Frank Y. Schwab, mayor of the city of Buffalo, N. Y. Saturday, April 16th, 1929."

Summer Travel Outlook is Good, Says Local Agent

Woodson F. Jones, local agent for the Union Pacific Railway, reports many inquiries concerning rates to the east this spring. He also reports interest in the summer travel opportunities to the national parks of the northwest reached by the Union Pacific. Mr. Jones has been authorized to act as agent also for several steamship lines, so he can be of assistance to almost anyone in helping them to get wherever they want to go.

It is announced by Mrs. Hinton, chairman of the Garden Section of the club, that the garden material remaining on hand at the close of the fete will be sold at cost to section members and others of the community on Monday.

SIERRA MADRE PAVING

SIERRA MADRE is lucky. Just now there is a little controversy over highways. Sierra Madre soil affords the best highway foundation in the country. Whatever the outcome of the highway squabble, the road foundation will remain. Therein lies the luck.

On Sierra Madre soil, properly prepared, highway surfaces give maximum service. Highways that would go to pieces quickly in many valley locations will last indefinitely here. Paving economy is sound practice here. There is no doubt that the public mind right now is strong for economy.

Anything but rigid economy in expenditures in any kind of public improvement is likely to throw our whole civic structure out of balance. Sierra Madre faces heavy expense for schools, for sewers, for water system (already authorized) and for streets. Street lighting is also much needed. None of these need be done at the expense of the others. Neither is there reason for a deadlock or for discouragement which will result in nothing being done.

Facing the sewer problem, obviously calling for installation within a very few years at most, streets must be torn up. The heavier the type of pavement, the less desirable this appears. Some citizens are opposing any permanent paving ahead of sewer installation.

Asphalt macadam is not ordinarily classed as permanent paving. On Sierra Madre soil it stands up better than heavier paving in many other places. There is much to be said in favor of adopting it as standard paving in Sierra Madre, in view of the conditions already enumerated.

Intelligent consideration of the Central Avenue project by the public calls for estimates for this type of paving in addition to those already submitted. The figures already given were said by the engineer to be ample either for asphalt or concrete. A splendid grade of macadam should be possible at a great saving. And on Sierra Madre soil it should be serviceable for many years.

GOOD BUSINESS

HOW business men went to bat for the churches and were jolted into a program which put them on their feet is an interesting story from Cape Girardeau, Mo. The story is told by one of the publishers of the city's only newspaper, The Southwest Missourian, and its lessons are best emphasized in the story itself:

"Eight years ago one of our men who took an interest in the Episcopal Church sat in meeting with a few other members and urged the Bishop to send a rector who would develop into one of the representative men of the town. They described the man they wanted and finally the Bishop said he had the very man. Then he knocked the group of churchmen dead by asking: 'Are you willing to pay sufficient salary so a rector can live as a representative of your community?' We were told how embarrassed the churchmen were when they realized that the Bishop knew the last rector had been starved out.

"Our newspaper called 20 business men together who represented the leading Protestant churches and told them what the Bishop had said, and gave them the information that several preachers were unable to properly clothe their families. Babson had said what the churches need is better business methods and that business needs more religion.

"Our newspaper then gave a dinner and invited in the pastor and a few leading men of each church, a total of 60 men. The evening was spent discussing the business affairs of the church and at that party it was announced that no longer would this newspaper publish free church announcements. We insisted that the churches get out of the charitable, poverty-stricken class and go on a business basis. The challenge was accepted and since that time every church in the town, Protestant and Catholic, has been a persistent advertiser in our columns.

"We are now arranging for our eighth annual Church Dinner, which has become a community institution. We personally invite the pastor and a few men and women from every church. No preacher is asked to speak, but we have business men discuss the business affairs of the church. In recent years we have invited from 200 to 250 men and women.

"The slogan of our Chamber of Commerce is: 'In Cape Girardeau the Church comes first,' and large sign boards in different parts of our city announce this.

"In the past four years the churches have spent more than $300,000 for new buildings. This year the largest Methodist Sunday School building in Missouri was completed and placed in use. Last year either the largest or one of the largest Baptist church and Sunday School buildings in Missouri was completed here. This month the Presbyterians started work on a Sunday School building that will not be the largest but will be perhaps the most complete plant of its kind. The Lutherans have erected a new school and recreational plant of large proportions and are now completing the remodeling of their church building. Both Catholic churches have been enlarged and modernized. A half dozen neighborhood church houses have been erected.

"The pastor of every regular church in Cape Girardeau now gets a fair salary.

"At the beginning of this year the board of each church was told that unless the advertising in our newspapers was considered essential to the church it should not be continued; virtually an invitation to quit advertising, and no one church quit. The Ministerial Alliance, in reply to the individual notices, sent a letter of appreciation."

THE SEWAGE QUESTION

EARLY in June Sierra Madre residents will be asked to vote on whether or not this city will join the Metropolitan Sewer District No. 7. It is intimated that any municipality desiring to join must do so at the time the district is organized, or thereafter be deprived of such opportunity for all time.

Sierra Madre, fortunately, need have no immediate concern as regards sewer mains and laterals in the city limits. Conditions are ideal for the system now prevailing, and the expense is moderate as compared to the expense faced in other communities in Southern California. This condition cannot, however, exist forever. The normal increase in population will force a change sometime in the next ten years, in all probability, and it is to provide for future needs that the Chamber of Commerce is now conducting an active survey of conditions.

Monrovia and Arcadia are confronted with conditions that must be remedied in the very near future. Monrovia's disposal plant is antiquated and far too small, and the citizens of that city will be forced either to build a new plant, or go into the Metropolitan Sewer District. Arcadia will probably find it expedient to follow Monrovia's lead. It has been suggested that Sierra Madre join these two cities in a tri-city plant. The plan has many features to recommend it. Pasadena public officials express a willingness to receive a petition from Sierra Madre looking toward a hook-up with their fine plant, which is believed large enough to serve Pasadena and all nearby communities for many years to come.

With three different propositions, each a possible solution to our difficulties, Sierra Madre must give intensive study to the matter, and decide on a wise course. Otherwise the future is fraught with uncertainties and probable trouble.

WRECKAGE

STATISTICS often seem to conceal what they purport to reveal. Once in awhile the statisticians make an illuminating discovery. For instance, the state railroad commission announces after much figuring that the average automobile wreck occurs with 1.5 persons in the car.

Uh huh, there are lots of those cars on the road containing just 1.5 persons. They are especially numerous nights, Sundays and holidays. And the 1.5 are usually trying to occupy the same seat.

One thing we do know, and that is, the man who sings when he shaves has got a better razor than we have.—Dallas News.

Observations

(By G. B. M.)

Every morning I see a lot of boys and girls embark for school. The Woodrow Wilson junior high buses stop right in front of the office. The high school crowd take the electric cars across the street. They are a refreshing lot, with many and constantly varying things to make them interesting.

One of the things that pleases me most is the number of musical instruments they carry—trumpets and trombones, fiddles and French horns. Many more of them keep their instruments at school for the daily work in band or orchestra. And many others are taking regular lessons in piano or voice. On the whole, we must have a very large number of young musicians in the making.

FADS AND FANCIES—Frills of modern education some will call it. But I'm sure music is one of the most valuable things those youngsters are acquiring in their school course.

To some of them this music training will lead to a livelihood. To others it will mean merely increased capacity for appreciating fine music as performed by others. For all of them it may mean, in some degree, a solution of the amusement problem. For nowadays people must be amused. And so many of them have such pitifully slim resources for their own amusement. They have to fall back on ready-made amusement. They are entirely dependent on others.

The amusement bill of the United States has a tremendous bearing on economic conditions. Even making allowance for the money distributed by the various amusement industries, it is a heavy bill to pay. But the financial side may not be so important as the extent to which our modern amusement facilities impoverish the growing generation in self-dependence.

AHEAD OR BEHIND?

I live in an old-fashioned home. Probably there are few like it nowadays. It has neither player piano, talking machine nor radio. If it shows bad taste to boast of possessions, perhaps it is just as bad to show undue pride in lack of them. But possessions are not the point, and I'm not boasting. Just making the point that when one likes music makers it is much more enjoyable to marry them or to raise them than to buy them at a music store.

Moreover, I haven't anything against reproduced music—in its place. And it has a very important place in life. I hear wonderful music every day, floating into the News office from the radio shop next door. It is en-

There is a stage at which "canon" music is dangerous to budding musicians, and another stage where it may be valuable. In the early stages of musical training the ability to get music by turning a crank or a dial tends to take away the incentive to lessons and to practice. But at a later stage, when a foundation has been established, the student can use both the talking machine and the radio to splendid advantage in studying the interpretations of real artists.

So I am keenly interested in what the schools are doing for these eager youngsters along musical lines. For it is going to provide them with one of their most enjoyable and delightful resources.

TIPS TO MOTORISTS

It is wise to dress the top at this time of the year, and also equip the car with a good sun visor and awnings if you like them.

Look well to your tires, for vacation time is at hand. You should not start out on a trip, expecting to enjoy it fully, if your car is equipped with poor tires.

Headlights should be adjusted properly not only to give the maximum amount of driving range, but as a protection to other motorists and against the possibility of arrest.

If you are sure your carburetor is causing trouble, such as the motor sputtering, lack of power etc., do not attempt to adjust it unless you are absolutely familiar with it, but take the car to an expert.

When the front wheels "shimmy," it can be caused to a certain extent by loose or worn front wheel bearings, even though king pins and bushings are o. k. This should be given immediate attention by an expert.

When the engine of your car overheats slightly and the cooling and ignition systems appear to be functioning properly, it is possible that improperly inflated tires is the cause. Naturally, the greater the road traction the more horse-power is used.

If the differential develops a noise, regardless of how slight it may be, immediate attention should be given to it by an expert. Only a slight adjustment may be necessary if it is taken care of at the proper time, and a large repair bill may thus be saved.

Huge Crowds Come Daily To Wistaria

Thousands of People See the Vine With Profusion Of Bloom

Many Social Events During the Week in Connection With Fete

With attendance growing as the weather continues favorable and the great Wistaria vine sends out more bloom, this year's Wistaria Fete seems likely to eclipse past attendance records. Last Sunday saw an enormous crowd, and next Sunday, the last day, is expected to bring the greatest of all.

Definite decision to close the fete on April 14 in accordance with the original schedule was reached on Thursday.

Attendance last Sunday was estimated all the way from 12,000 to 15,000. By actual count 2504 automobiles passed around the Scenic Point drive. Many cars were parked further down the hill and their occupants walked to the fete. President C. B. Klunk of the chamber of commerce counted the occupants of cars long enough to determine that the average was four to a car. Simple arithmetic shows a minimum of 10,000 persons, without making any allowance for the large number of pedestrians.

The past five or six days at the Wistaria Fete have been gala days with many special features. The sunny days of the past week have also encouraged many private lunch parties and teas.

Tuesday, April 9 was Bird Day at the fete and Mrs. F. T. Bicknell, chairman of the state bird committee, honored the occasion with her presence. Mrs. Bicknell, now president-emerita, was president of the Los Angeles Audubon Society for eight years. There were also representatives from the California State Audubon Society, Santa Monica Audubon Society, Pasadena Audubon Society, the Whittier Nature Club, Southern California Nature Club, and the Southwest Bird Study Club. After the luncheon the members of the several Audubon societies were entertained with a musical program, arranged in their honor by Mrs. Sally M. Boaz. Miss Laura E. Cadmus, in her rich mezzo-soprano voice, sang "Trees" by Oscar Rasbach, and "The Swallows," by Cowen, delightfully accompanied by Mrs. George B. Morgridge at the piano.

On Sunday afternoon Mrs. Florence E. Eakman, with four little girl performers from Carter Weaver Studio of drama and pantomime gave a charming program on the lawn. The selections read were written by Mrs. Eakman.

Mrs. John H. Robertson entertained a large group at luncheon under the vine on Monday. Among her guests were Dr. Frederick W. Roman.

Hosts and hostesses designated by Mrs. E. D. Burbank, chairman of that department, for the period not covered by last week's published list, are as follows:

Friday, April 5—American Legion Auxiliary; Mrs. L. E. Wheeler, Mrs. R. W. Stewart, Mrs. Roy Pickett, Mrs. Blanche Buie, Mrs. Agnes Tyree, Mrs. H. C. Reavis. Saturday, April 6—Congregational ladies; Mrs. E. E. Bacon, Mrs. Brauman, Mrs. F. H. Hartman, Miss Clara Larjar, Mrs. McLellan.

Sunday, April 7—Mr. and Mrs. Woodson Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Shippey, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Dietz, Mrs. Dawson.

Monday, April 8—Mrs. E. B. Gray, Miss Carrie Holden, Mrs. Fred Staff.

Tuesday, April 9—Kiwanis Club led by Ray Grant; Mrs. Charles Klunk, Karl Hart, Mrs. Franklin Swift.

Wednesday, April 10—American Legion Auxiliary; Mrs. N. W. Tarr, Mrs. L. E. Steinberger, Miss Elizabeth Steinberger, Mrs. Henry Olsen, Mrs. Nina Rallsback, Mrs. Tom Neale, Mrs. A. H. Embree, Mrs. R. W. Stewart.

Thursday, April 11—Parent-Teachers Association, led by Mrs. Joe Stimling, Mrs. W. J. Adwell, Mrs. W. H. Butts.

Friday, April 12—American Legion, led by H. Clay Reavis. Mrs. Reavis, Mr. Caukin, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pickett.

Saturday, April 13—Mr. and Mrs. Burbank, Mr. Karl Hart, Mrs. Frank Hart, Miss Harriet Grant, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Corlett and Mrs. John Lowe.

Sunday, April 14—Masters of the Masonic Lodge. Mr. H. H. McMillen, Mr. Conners, Twycross, Mr. H. E. Allen, Mr. George Morgridge, Mr. D. C. Ashmore, Mr. W. J. Lawless, Mr. C. J. Pegler, Mr. C. W. Jones, Mr. Milton Steinberger.

In every advertisement published by the H. S. Riser Lumber Co. of Glendora recently, appears the words, "Let's have a swimming pool."

Lyric Theatre Offers Highest Type of Modern Film Art

Stellar "talkie" attractions continue at the Monrovia Lyric theatre, and Sierra Madre movie fans are getting their film thrills practically in their own front yard. Heretofore, local residents have had to make the long trek to Los Angeles, Hollywood, or the shorter "jump" to Pasadena in order to see the productions offered by the modern miracle of talking films. Following the fine progressive spirit which prompted Manager Myers of the Lyric, the latest pictures are being shown in Monrovia, just a short drive down the boulevard.

Among the attractions for the coming week are "Cohens and Kellys at Coney Island," a screaming comedy; Al Jolson in "The Singing Fool," the picture that has broken most picture-show-attendance records, and "Fancy Baggage," also a Warner Bros. "talkie." Vitaphone act and the news reels, together with the organ recitals present programs of high merit.

Matinees are scheduled for Saturday and Sunday afternoons.

Publisher of First Paper Visits Here

Ralph House Aided Father in Printing Sierra Madre Vista in 1888

Ralph E. House, who assisted his father, L. T. House, in the publication of Sierra Madre's first paper in 1888, was a Sierra Madre visitor on Friday. Mr. House is now a resident of Graham where he recently retired from the undertaking business in which he has been engaged for many years.

The Sierra Madre Vista was started by L. T. House and Son, the latter taking over the business later. As business and population dwindled after the great boom, the paper suspended after being published two or three years.

Files of the Vista now in possession of the News office brought to Mr. House vivid memories of what had long been forgotten. In the news and advertising column were found a few names of people still here—S. R. G. Twycross, W. S. Andrews, S. R. Norris, the Hawks and Deutsch families. Mr. House found a few of them in the course of his brief visit and said he would return soon to hunt up more of them, now that he has plenty of leisure.

The Sierra Madre Vista was printed in the building now occupied by Al Myers' tire shop. The House family lived upstairs. The building did not look entirely familiar to Mr. House at first because it is in a different setting. In the old days it stood on the east side of Baldwin, near Suffolk Avenue.

Local Fares Not Affected By Petition

Monthly Pass Only Change Proposed on Sierra Madre Line

Pacific Electric fares on the Sierra Madre line would not be affected by the proposed new schedules which the railway company has asked the state railroad commission to approve. Although many cities would have to pay a higher rate, either for single trip or commutation tickets, or both, the experimental rates made effective in April, 1928, would remain the same on this line.

The only change on the Sierra Madre line would be the issuance of monthly passes for $10.50. For the commuter who makes the round trip on 26 working days in a month this would mean almost exactly 40 cents a day. The present 60-ride books good for 40 days at $12.05 figure within a fraction of a cent of this. The advantage of the monthly pass would be that additional trips are permitted when desired at no additional expense.

The monthly pass rate for Arcadia would be $10.50; for Monrovia, $11.50.

Sierra Madre's one-way and round-trip rates would remain at 35c and 60c. Arcadia would be raised to the same figure, while Monrovia would be raised to 40c and 70c.

In the application filed with the railroad commission, General Manager Pontius reviews the effect of the experimental rates during the past year. He says the company has enjoyed a large increase in number of passengers hauled but with a decrease in net revenue. The increased fares are now asked in the hope of making revenues and operating expenses coordinate.

Recall Date Will Be Set On Tuesday

Two gentlemen thoroughly and finds them eminently satisfactory. They both appear to possess to the highest degree the one qualification which the committee considers basically essential—the respect and confidence of their fellow citizens who know them and who have had dealings with them. They have had business experience in various lines and have given evidences of good common sense and sane judgment. Each has expressed himself as willing to give his best endeavors to carry on the business of the city in an efficient, business-like manner if elected.

"The committee has asked them for no pledges beyond the assurance that, in all matters of street improvement, or any project calling for bonded indebtedness, they will be guided by the expressed wish of the majority of the property owners interested."

"In view of the above facts, the committee recommends these two gentlemen to the favorable consideration of the members of the association and urges the latter not only to vote for them on the day of election, but also to influence their friends and neighbors to vote for them."

SUGAR IN THE DIET

A little sweetening makes the most nutritious meal more palatable whether the sweet comes directly from nature's sugar bowl (the fruits) or from the marmalade jar. Calories are added, too, as sugar in any form is a high caloric, quick-acting fuel food.

Vigorous, young adults and healthy children can well use a judicious amount of sweet foods in a wholesome, balanced diet. Even grandmother profits from a sugar cube in her 4-o'clock tea when body tissues need emergency fuel to tide over until dinner time.

Children, especially, need an adequate supply of condensed food foods along with the necessary vitamins and minerals. Their food storage capacity is much less than an adult's and their activity is far greater. This quickly uses up their fuel foods. An apple or orange (rich in sugar) are good re-fueling foods for mid-meal lunches.

Sweets can be wisely inserted into a child's three meals a day and yet not lessen his eating of a desirable quantity of food. Raisins and dates in his breakfast cereal occasionally, and a "wee sprinkle" of sugar make a more tasty dish and also add more calories. Simple desserts of baked or stewed fruits, cereal puddings and jello with a sugar cookie now and then, all are good carriers of sweets that not only satiate the appetite at the end of a good meal, but give a stimulating zest which both adult and child enjoy.

Mal-nourished children, however, often use sweets to excess. In such instances sweets must be greatly reduced in their diets and often wholly excluded until better eating habits are established.

Parent-Teacher Meeting Set for Next Wednesday

What method do you use in guiding your child? Do you know the best method to use to bring out his latent qualities, to help him mould his life so that after reaching maturity he will realize all the fullness, richness and contentment that are his just due?

All these questions will be answered and suggestions given concerning child guidance at the Parent-Teacher meeting Wednesday, April 17, by Miss Margaret Bennett of the Pasadena Guidance Council.

Gus Riher, will present Virginia Hatcher and Jane Anderson in musical numbers.

It is hoped that all parents will attend as a thorough understanding of the phase of education aids all parties—the pupil, the teacher and the parent, to gain, on the part of the child, obedience, altruism, progressiveness and other desired qualities of a good student and citizen.

As a part of the program carried on by the school for happier working hours and mindful of the physical physiological value of beauty and pleasantness at the eating hour, the cafeteria has been redecorated in cheerful cream and yellow tones and gay material purchased for drapes, which will be made by Miss Lusted's classes. Each class is charged with the duty of bringing flowers for the tables on a certain day and the whole cafeteria presents a charming and festive appearance.—Mrs. Butts, press correspondent.

Bank Shows Increase in Depositors

Reports Presented and Officers Re-elected at Annual Meeting

At the annual meeting of stockholders of the Sierra Madre Savings Bank on Tuesday, all officers and directors of the institution were re-elected. Reports on the year's business showed a highly encouraging situation, with a considerable increase in number of depositors. Although the total amount of deposits showed a slight decrease, as might be expected under prevailing business conditions, the spread over the larger number of depositors gives evidence of a wholesome tendency to careful handling of funds.

The quarterly report submitted to the state banking department as of March 27 showed total resources of $718,496.74. The capital is $45,000, with surplus and undivided profits of $49,992.35.

The official roster of the bank includes H. E. Allen, president; C. S. Kersting, vice president; W. H. Ingraham, cashier; M. F. Seeley, assistant cashier; directors, H. E. Allen, C. S. Kersting, C. W. Yerxa, F. H. Hartman, C. W. Forman, W. S. Andrews, W. S. Hull.

Chief of Police H. A. Walker of Hemet has been "fired" by the Hemet city council, which is engaged in a liquor cleanup.

Pasadena Sewer Farm Is Inspected

and the committee will endeavor to make a thorough analysis of three different propositions that are now available for consideration: Joining the metropolitan district, tying up with Pasadena or joining Monrovia and Arcadia in building and operating a tri-city plant.

Monrovia, Arcadia, Sierra Madre and Altadena are all making surveys of conditions, as each is vitally interested in the matter.

A meeting with City Engineer Earle has been arranged by the committee for next Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at which time the matter will be gone into from the angle of hooking up with the Pasadena plant, route of the outfall line which would be necessitated, costs, etc.

As figures and facts are available they will be given out for publication by the committee. It is important that every property owner be fully informed by the time the metropolitan district project is before them, and everyone should follow the committee findings carefully.

The following residents of Sierra Madre made the trip Wednesday afternoon: L. E. Steinberger, J. N. Hawks, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Burbank, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pickett, Mrs. Ellen Barker, Miss Elizabeth Steinberger, C. W. Jones, J. E. Carpenter, Ray Grant, W. A. Evans, W. P. Caley, W. S. Hull, C. B. Klunk, W. J. Lawless, Al Myers, Henry Isaacs, Joe Behlavek, G. G. Ogg, E. B. Doolittle, City Engineer O. A. Gierlich and Joe R. Eastwood.

The members of the committee were informed that the water piped to the Rio Honda had a bacterial content of 50 per cubic centimeter, which is purer than health board requirements. The water at this point is used by plant employees for drinking purposes, and while it looked clear enough, no one in the party made any attempt to quench his thirst at the outlet. The different steps in treatment of the sewage are very interesting, and it was also noted by members of the party that very little odor was noticeable about the plant.

The Puente Women's Club will present a "surprise vodvil" at the high school on May 3rd.

See... this electrical display

...many travelers call it the most spectacular sight in the West

FROM mile-high Mt. Lowe, two hours' scenic ride from Los Angeles, you look down on the greatest electrical display that can be witnessed. The lights of Los Angeles and 55 other Southern California cities spread their thrilling pattern over a single panorama embracing 2000 square miles.
